

HEALTH MATTER OF EDUCATION— DR. C. H. LAYMAN

Local Dentist Makes Address
Before Regional Meet of Red Cross.

"Health is primarily a matter of education," declared Dr. Claude H. Layman in an address delivered yesterday before the American Red Cross regional conference held in the Y. W. C. A. building. Dr. Layman's subject was "Nurses and Health Work."

"Four attempts were made to build the Panama Canal," continued Dr. Layman, "before education removed the obstacle of yellow fever. A knowledge of the transmission of malaria by the mosquito, with screening and the elimination of their breeding places, freed thousands of soldiers in our southern training camps during the World War from this dreaded disease. Eighty-six men out of every 100 who died during the Spanish-American War were victims of typhoid fever, while in the World War there were less than fifty deaths from typhoid with over 4,500,000 men under arms for this country. This was accomplished through a complete knowledge of the anti-typhoid vaccine."

Infected Teeth
Discussing the seriousness of infected teeth and tonsils, Dr. Layman declared that such conditions often lead to focal infections and that these focal infections very often play a major part in bringing about serious and chronic diseases, such as Bright's disease, rheumatism in the form of inflammation of the joints, hardening of the arteries and numerous other human ills.

"More deaths were caused in the United States last year by organic heart disease than any other," said Dr. Layman. "The total was 145,000. Tuberculosis was next with 130,000 victims; pneumonia took 125,000; Bright's disease, 100,000 and cancer 75,000. Focal infection plays a very important part in three of these heart disease, tuberculosis and nephritis. Early diagnosis and surgical removal of these foci of infection would have saved the major part of these thousands to the nation."

Draft Revelations
Speaking of the health revelations made by the draft in the World War, Dr. Layman said:

"Thirty-seven per cent of our young manhood was found unfit for military service in the World War. Of these, 88 per cent can be classified under six heads: Diseases of bones and joints, special senses, cardio-vascular, nervous and mental, tuberculosis and defective physical development. Most of the above physical disability starts in early life, at which time it is preventable."

Dr. Layman declared that there were many agencies all ready at work along preventative lines, and that the average span of life had been moved up to thirty-eight from twenty-two fifty years ago.

A Sad Case
"In this country last year 92 cents out of every dollar went for war purposes; 1 cent was spent

EAST SIDE NEWS

Will Meet Tonight
The Good Cheer Class of the Diamond Street M. E. Sunday School will hold a social meeting this evening in the social rooms of the church. The husbands and families of the members have been asked to attend, and a very enjoyable evening is anticipated.

Honor General Grant
Each of the schools of the East Side is planning special chapel exercises, and "General Grant" will be the main feature of each program. At the State Street School a very interesting chapel program is being arranged for Friday afternoon.

Attend Chain Meeting
A large number of the members of the Foreign Missionary Society of the Diamond Street M. E. Church attended the chain meeting held at the home of Mrs. Levi B. Hart Saturday. Mrs. Hart is a county officer, and a number of these meetings will be held in the near future.

T. A. S. Circle
The T. A. S. Circle will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Carl D. Springer in Gutfrey street.

Home Will Soon Be Completed
Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gaskins will soon take up their residence in their new bungalow being built in Tygart street.

Mrs. Dixon Will Speak
Mrs. A. G. Dixon, a home missionary worker, will speak at the First M. P. Church Thursday evening. Mrs. Dixon had planned to spend Wednesday at the church, but will be unable to be here until Thursday evening.

Links Class
The Links Bible Class held a delightful meeting at the home of Mrs.

for education. Is it any wonder there is a lack of health. I am not a pacifist, but I believe this expenditure of money should be more easily. In West Virginia more money is spent for the care and prevention of hog cholera than for health."

He paid a fine compliment to the Red Cross, when he said: "The Red Cross through the establishing of Nursing Service in the numerous chapters throughout the country is lending most valuable service in the education for better health."

Dr. Layman explained the detail the status of the Red Cross nurse and also that of the dental hygienist.

In closing he said: "In the past year, several educational features stand out with very gratifying results, which were organized through this nursing service. The work of the West Virginia Tuberculosis Association is done in this district through the public health nursing service. Through the co-operation of these agencies, a better health week was held with pre-school age clinics; also a tubercular clinic. Through the activity of the Fairmont Kiwanis Club we now have a milk ordinance which is enforced, with tubercular examination of the dairy herds."

Dr. Layman expressed the conviction that there would be a very constructive health program all over the county in the near future.

Eva May Stretchberry in Marion street Monday evening. Mrs. Criss, the class teacher, was unable to be present, and the lesson was taught by Miss Nellie Wilson.

Personals
Walter B. Wilson of Clarksburg spent Sunday here the guest of his mother, Mrs. E. A. Wilson.

Mrs. Rebecca Ratcliff is spending a week with her brother, John Henderson, and family at Cross Roads.

Miss Naomi Morgan, a student at the East Side High School, spent the week-end at her home in Cross Roads.

Mrs. A. W. Dennis of State street is spending several days with relatives in Clarksburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Nazum have moved from Buckhannon to Fairmont, where they will locate permanently.

Mrs. Rachael Craig, who has spent the winter with Mrs. Cora L. Morrow in State street, will return to her home in Boothville today. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Morrow, who will spend several days there.

Miss Lucille Anderson has returned from Keyser, where she spent the week-end with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Malone and Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Springer spent Sunday at Colfax, the guests of the former's father.

Miss Thelma Fisher has returned from Clarksburg, where she spent the week-end as the guest of Miss Mary Lou Casto.

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Harrington and son have returned from a few days' visit at Clarksburg.

Mrs. Nancy Holland is spending a week with her brother, A. C. Gaskins, and family at Ice Run.

Edward Gaskins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gaskins, who is spending some time at Terra Alta, is delighted with his location and has gained six pounds. He suffered from an attack of grip and was sent to Terra Alta to recuperate.

Albert Meredith has returned to his home near Parkersburg after a few days' visit with his son, Charles Meredith, and wife in Diamond street.

The shooting itself occurred in the doctor's office.

Three patients were waiting to see him, among them Mrs. Raizen, heavily veiled. She was called into the office, remained a few moments and left hurriedly. When other patients opened the doctor's door, Glickstein was found dead.

Mrs. Raizen had fired the shot which killed her victim through her muff. Then after police had hunted in vain for two days for the slayer, she gave herself up to the district attorney. She pleaded that Glickstein, before her marriage had wronged her, and had forced her to submit to two operations which he himself performed.

The defendant is expected to plead insanity. She has been examined by three commissions of alienists, whose reports will be read.

ONLY A WEEK LEFT FOR TWINS' STORY

Five Illustrated Books to Be Given to Girl or Boy Writing Best

Nancy and Nick, the twins whose adventures appear daily in The West Virginian, have been visiting Helter-Skelter-Land, Scrub-Up-Land, Topsy-Turvy-Land and the Land-of-Deer-Knows-Where and the Land-of-Near-By. Their adventures on this trip have been related in five wonderful books, and Olive Roberts Barton, author of "The Adventures of the Twins," has instructed the "Fairy Queen" to send a set of the books to the little boy or girl in Marion County who can write the best adventure about Nancy and Nick.

Would you like to have these books? Then get your pencil or pen out and write not more than 200 words about Nancy and Nick and some trip you would like for them to take through Fairyland. It must be your own little story about the twins whom you love.

Write on one side of the paper only, put your name, age and address at the top of the story and mail it to the "Fairy Queen" care of The West Virginian before May 1.

The "Fairy Queen" has already received many stories and she is anxiously awaiting yours. There are only seven days left before the contests closes.

TRIAL OF LILLIAN RAIZEN DELAYED

Cellmate of Olivia Stone to Face Charge of Killing
Dr. Glickstein

NEW YORK, April 24.—Trial of Mrs. Lillian Raizen, charged with the murder of Dr. Abraham Glickstein in his Brooklyn office, has been indefinitely postponed pending the report of a commission which has been examining her sanity. District Attorney Ruston announced Monday.

The case follows close on the heels of the trial of Miss Olivia M. P. Stone, graduate nurse, who recently was acquitted of a charge of murdering Ellis G. Kinkadee, former corporation counsel of Cincinnati, in Brooklyn last fall.

Indeed, the cases have points of similarity.

In both cases, the defendants have told a tale of betrayal at the hand of the man they killed. In both cases a defense of insanity was made or indicated. In both cases a triangle existed.

A cellmate of Miss Stone's in the Raymond street jail, Mrs. Raizen followed closely every move in the Kinkadee case, and at night the two women would sit up late chatting over details of the trial.

Another point at which the cases crossed trails came shortly after the acquittal of Miss Stone, when Mrs. Anna Glickstein, the physician's widow, leaped to her death from a window in her home.

"Any woman can commit murder now," Mrs. Glickstein said before she killed herself, "especially a woman like Mrs. Raizen. She will be freed, too. All she will have to do is to say she was insane."

As dramatic as the suicide of the widow was the death of the physician's aged mother, Mrs. Lena Glickstein. Gazing on the bier of her beloved son, she fell dead across the coffin.

The shooting itself occurred in the doctor's office.

Three patients were waiting to see him, among them Mrs. Raizen, heavily veiled. She was called into the office, remained a few moments and left hurriedly. When other patients opened the doctor's door, Glickstein was found dead.

Mrs. Raizen had fired the shot which killed her victim through her muff. Then after police had hunted in vain for two days for the slayer, she gave herself up to the district attorney. She pleaded that Glickstein, before her marriage had wronged her, and had forced her to submit to two operations which he himself performed.

The defendant is expected to plead insanity. She has been examined by three commissions of alienists, whose reports will be read.

Children of Lepers to Be Taken to Manila

MANILA, April 25.—Returning yesterday from an inspection trip through the southern islands which included the Cullion leper colony, Governor General Wood announced 200 children born of leper parents would be brought to Manila within a few days. The children are from 2 to 3 years old but are free from leprosy. It was originally the intention of the constabulary to establish a separate colony on Cullion Island for children, but experts of the Rockefeller Foundation, who visited the island with Governor Wood, decided it was more feasible to bring them to Manila. They will be placed in a public orphanage until danger of their developing the disease has passed.
